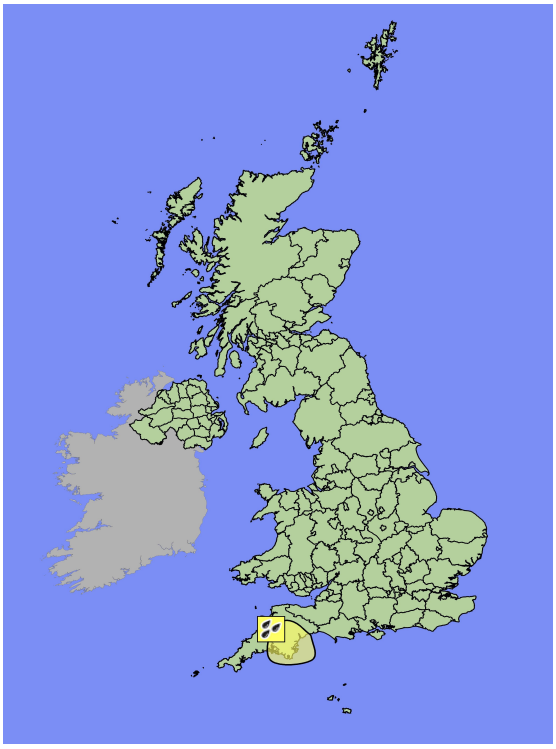
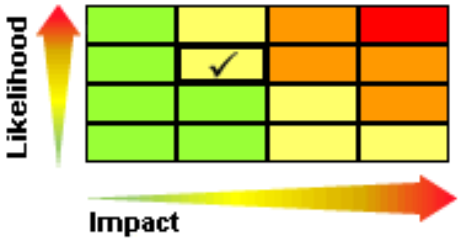
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Showers may give isolated totals of 10 to 15mm in one hour and perhaps 15 to 25mm in 3 hours or less. As often happens in such situations, some places will miss the showers.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 13:30 on Mon, 11th Jun 2012 until 21:00 on Mon, 11th Jun 2012

Showers across parts of southwest England are likely to become heavy and locally thundery this afternoon and gradually die out this evening. The public should be aware that localised surface water flooding may occur.
